

Product Vision:
Backend e-commerce orders processing system with automatic orders export from several trading platforms.
	Target group	Needs	Product	Value
	Customer Company (CC) is selling goods using several trading platforms (e-shops and EBAY).	Business needs for initial version:	Web-based solution with the following high-level functionality:	The following benefits are anticipated:
	Currently to process orders and go through all the steps of their business process they have to manual create and daily update an Excel file.	1. To centralize all the Orders data to eliminate daily manual work by using automated Orders data export from all trading platforms	- Automatic export of orders data from all trading platforms	- Time save as a result of excluding manual processing
	Future users: CC sales personnel.	2. Increase Orders processing by visualizing all the business process steps and assigning tasks to specific employee	- Visualizing orders data as orders list and individual order view	- Higher quality of customer service
			- Existing order editing
			- Adding new order manually
			- Filtering and search functionality
			- Visualizing business arocess steps for orders
			- Assigning order processing to specific employee
			- Visual notification of orders statuses and specific events	